Supportive Services for Veterans and Families

The Supportive Services for Veteran Families (SSVF) program promotes housing stability among very low-income Veteran families who reside in or who are transitioning to permanent housing.

This program works to prevent homelessness by helping veterans and their families with an array of supportive services and to rapidly re-house veterans who are experiencing homelessness.

How will this program help?

The SSVF program is designed to help low income veterans and their families with a variety of services including housing, financial assistance, referrals, legal services, financial planning, child care and parenting help, housing searches, case management and services coordination.

Who is eligible?

- Very low-income veterans* and their families (household income below 50% Area Median Income)
- Veterans* who are homeless or at risk of homelessness
- Very low-income veterans* who have permanent housing or are transitioning to permanent housing.

*Veteran definition: A person who served in the military and was discharged or released under conditions other than dishonorable.
